#1	Duncan gets himself and his daughter, Shivani, ready for the day. She needs a little more attention due to her fragile state, being speech impaired in all. She also has a heart problem inherited from her mother, who has already passed away. Morana, Duncan's sister-in-law, is the tri-state coroner. She has been trying to help Duncan find a compatible donor to save Shivani's life.
#2	After dropping Shivani off at his sister Delaney's house, he arrives at the police department to start his workday. He overhears a dispute about a missing daughter. Catching the name of the daughter, he intervenes and deescalates the argument. Later, he sneaks pictures of the report.
#3	Switching angles, Anansi and his girlfriend Gilda take a trip to a remote camping site.
#4	That night, Gilda went for a midnight dip in the lake and overheard a heated argument. She approaches Anansi and an odd man. When she tries to mediate the situation, the odd man flees. They joke off the event and end the night taking some mushrooms and enjoying each other's company.
#5	Gilda wakes the next morning alone. She fearfully begins to search for Anansi.
#6	On a farm nearby, a young woman is doing chores. She hears an erratic animal and investigates. She realizes she is not alone. She tries to escape and hide, but she suffers a losing battle. The masked men that attacked her extract her liver.
#7	Duncan arrives on Morana's doorstep in the early hours of the morning. Duncan tells her he found a donor. Morana accepts this and helps him. They transfer the body to Morana's basement. There they quickly go over the plan. Duncan takes Shivani to Mexico for a fake procedure. They would collect fake evidence to recreate that whole week that he is out of town. After the procedure, once they are back in town, they plan to dispose of the body, in a lake nearby.

#8	Duncan and Morana meet in Missouri under false identities. Morana uses her distant colleague's practice to perform the transplant. The transplant is successful and Morana stays overnight to make sure Shivani is stabilized. Now that Shivani will be okay, Duncan begins to feel the weight of his decisions. Morana sees the distress and comforts him. They have a night of passion. Morana wakes the next morning, she checks on Shivani and gives Duncan her assistant, Heather's number, and instructions to make sure Shivani is recovering properly.
#9	Morana pulls into her driveway. She walks into her living room before turning on the light. When she does, the living room is filled with masked people. She slowly backs out of the room and bumps into another masked person and they cover her mouth.
#10	Gilda is at her wits end searching for Anansi. She hears distant chopping. Gilda finds a woman, who introduces herself as Zuberi. She is a worker for a nearby family and offers to take her back to them for help.
#11	Zuberi and Gilda arrive at the home of Alren and Devi during dinner. Devi is wheelchair bound, but the nice older couple offers Zuberi to give her a ride after dinner. Gilda starts eating before she realizes everyone else is not. She pauses, they say prayer, and then continue eating.
#12	After dinner, Gilda assists by doing the dishes. She accidentally cuts herself and blood drips onto the floor. An unstable man rushes into the room and begins licking up the blood. They introduce him as a housemate, Bhagat. Gilda recognizes his face as the man who fought with Anansi the night before. Gilda flees, but only getting a few steps out of the house before she collapses. Alren picks her up and carries her back inside.
13	Revealing many other housemates in the home including Anansi. Alren places her into a room used for rituals. He places her in front of a KALI deity. Devi, AKA MOTHER. Positions herself at the head of Gilda and begins a foreign chant. The others echo her.
#14	Duncan arrives in town, but Shivani is running a temperature. He calls Heather for advice. Within that conversation, she informs Duncan that she has not seen Morana in a while. He decides to check on Morana. While searching Morana's home he discovers the body that they used for his daughter's transplant is missing.

#15	Duncan panics and checks Morana’s hidden security cameras. Through the police traffic cameras, he tracks a car that was parked outside her house to a cold storage. There, he finds Morana’s dead body and a Jane Doe with a missing kidney.
#16	In a neighboring town, a college girl is attacked in her home. A masked man kidnaps her.
#17	She is taken to a cold storage unit and they extract a kidney from her body.
#18	Duncan is in the pursuit of finding the details of Jane Doe. He finds that the kidney that was missing from her body is a transplanted kidney and more shockingly that kidney was taken out of the body he brought to Morana’s house for his daughter's heart transplant.
#19	Two masked men arrive at Morana’s home. Revealing that the masked men are the cult members. They ransack the house and find a body.
#20	They take the body back to Mother’s house and examine the mutilation of the body. They find that 3 internal organs are missing. Mother declares a motivational speech backed up with a plan to piece the body back together within 14 days.
#21	While everyone finishes getting ready for the final ritual preparation ceremony, Bhagat fetches Gilda. He sees blood dripping from Gilda’s restraints. Bhagat rushes over to stop the sacred blood from spilling on the floor.
#22	Gilda uses this to her advantage and strikes him. She maneuvers around the house and gets a hold of Mother. She uses her as a hostage to escape. Still unaware of Anansi.
#23	She orders everyone into the chamber she was held in. All but Anansi obey her orders. Instead, he sneaks away unseen.
#24	Gilda makes her escape, but outside she is stopped by Anansi, who races towards her from the woods. He explains to her that he was lost in the woods until he heard screams and came running. Gilda has an internal fight to trust him. In her final attempt, she shoves Mother into a jagged pile of wood. Anansi throws his body in front of Mother to save her. Gilda flees into the forest.

#25	Zuberi and Heidi approach the distraught mother from the police department. They tell her that they are her daughter's friends and are looking for her. The mother confides in Zuberi and Heidi explaining what happened at the police station. After leaving the house, Zuberi concludes that the mother was telling the truth, and this was a dead end with only one option left.
#26	Duncan tries to make sense of Jane Doe. Heather reveals that they sold two of the body parts from the body they had that night. She tells him they sold a kidney and a liver. Duncan tracks the details of the person that the liver was transplanted to. He finds out that it was a lady that owns a farm, and she has been missing for a few days.
#27	Duncan concludes that his daughter's life is in danger, so he drops his daughter at his sister Delaney's house until he is done investigating. While he walks away, Alren, Delaney's husband enters the house. They both wave at each other.
#28	Gilda flees blindly through the forest. Focused on the chasers; Gilda runs into Duncan. He sees her fearful, so he reassures her by introducing himself as a cop and says her mother sent him to search for her. She frantically tells him everything that was happening. She says the family is closing in but does not know where she currently is. Duncan then injects her, and she passes out. He carries Gilda to his trunk and drives off.
#29	Zuberi ducks behind the shrubbery and witnesses a man loading Gilda into his trunk.
#30	Duncan then walks up to Morana's doorstep. Morana allows him inside. Duncan tells her he found a donor. Morana accepts this and helps him. They transfer Gilda's body to Morana's basement. There they quickly go over the plan.
#31	Zuberi goes back to the cult members and discloses what she saw. Mother then sets each member out for a job to get Gilda back.
(No Slide number for this) Flashback (we just show the	Mother guides the cult members through possible locations Gilda may be. The cult members check the local hospitals and the mortuary but in vain. Zuberi and Heidi come up empty handed at Gilda's mother's home. Alren discloses the information that his brother-in-law, Duncan just recently found a donor for his daughter. Duncan fits the description of the man Zuberi said took Gilda. The cult members stake out Morana's home and while Morana is away in Mussoorie with Duncan, they break in and discover Gilda's body. They take Gilda's body back

They return to Morana's home, and when she returns, they kidnap and torture her for the information. They assign a cult member to get the liver from the farmer and the kidney from the college student. And lastly, the heart from Shivani.
#32	Duncan receives a frantic call from Delaney and rips a U-Turn and heads back to her house. He observes Heidi and Alren's failed attempt to take Shivani. He gives Delaney instructions to take Shivani out of town and flee. He then takes Alren's phone and fingerprints. He tracks Heidi and forces her to bring him back to the cult's headquarters.
#33	Duncan then takes Zuberi hostage and forces her at gunpoint to take him to Gilda. He is overwhelmed at the sight of Gilda's body ripped open, lying on a yantra with liver and kidney connected to her from a distance and a missing heart. He attempts to burn Gilda's body. Zuberi throws herself at Duncan and the gun fires.
#34	Duncan races away and Anansi pursues him into the forest. In an attempt to escape, Duncan holds a compelling conversation about the moral dilemma they are both in. Anansi ends up shooting Duncan.
#35	Back into the ritual room, Mother is brought in to see the body decimated and her family members in distraught. Silently, Mother positions herself at the base of Gilda's body. She sits with eyes closed, pauses and releases her breath heavily. In a few minutes, the flames from Gilda's body die down, just for the flames to spontaneously combust from Mother's chest. The family watches with teary eyes as Mother silently burns.
