

"Welcome To My Life"

Do you ever feel like breaking down?
Do you ever feel like you've just clean this place,
Like somehow this house is trashed again
And you don't understand why
Do you ever wanna hide away
Do you lock yourself in the loo
With the door knob squeezed oh so tightly
Leave me alone I'm just peeing

No, you don't know what it's like
When no one listens to you
You don't know what it's like
To be like Mom

To be shut out
To feel hated
To be left out on the sidelines
To be pushed away, when you try to help
To feel like you have failed at life
To be on the edge of a mother explosion
And no one's there to calm you
No, you don't know what it's like
Welcome to a mom's life

Do you just wanna hang out?
Are you sick of feeling outta the loop?
Are you desperate to try to stay hip
Before you lose your teenager
Are you stuck in a generation ya hate?
Are you sick of all that crap music?
With their big fake (:O) and stupid lyrics
While deep inside ya ears are bleeding

No, you don't know what it's like
When your kids won't stop fightin'
You don't know what it's like
To be like a mom

To be a taxi

To feel that time gap
To work harder than a detective
To be the maid past ten o'clock
To feel like time never stops
To be on the edge of a mother's strike
And no one's there to help you
No you don't know what it's like
Welcome to a mother's life

No one ever said it was gonna be easy
And no one even gave you a guide book.
You might think I'm fed up, but I'm not and it's gonna be okay
Every mom is given what they've always wanted
You never knew a love that grand before
You don't know what it's like, what it's like

To see that smile
To feel that loved
To have the moment of pride
To be ripped from everyday life
To feel like you've gotten the best gifts around
To be on the brink of tears
And they look at you like you're crazy
No, you don't know what it's like (What it's like)

To be honored
To feel grateful
To be left with such amazing kids
To be blessed when they smile
To feel like you've got the best life around
To be on the out lookin' in
And you see your pride and joys
No, you don't know what it's like
Welcome to a mom's life
Welcome to a mother's life
Welcome to my life
