Panic attack
The confusion consumes us
We're under attack
On the home front there's panic
Attack
No more hiding you wanna fight back.
The vengeance consumes us

Arm the troops and send them back
Disarray among us
Survey the attack
Bare our arms we're-
Under attack
The hell we are going to fall back.

Your children dying
Your women are crying
The whole world is cowering over these heinous attacks!
Your mind is fusing with the thoughts that are consuming
There's no going back after we commit these counter-

Another attack the violence consumes us we gotta
Fight back
And let hell push us to their home front
Panic attack
Send the chills right through their terrorist eyes - cold-blooded attacks
And watch how their innocents die. Send the fear right back
Attack
Don't hold back remember the fears building up inside from our civilian attacks
Don't forget the shrilling cries that drive us to fight back!

Your children dying
Your women are crying
The whole world is compelled over these nefarious attacks!
Your mind is fusing with the thoughts that will consume us
There's no going back after we commit these counter-

Attacks!

On our home front they attack!
Have each other's backs
Unite before they send it to your home front and-
Attack!
Don't hold back

Let the darkness consumes us to fight back!

Your children dying
Your women are crying
The whole world is convoying towards these terrorists
Attack!
Your mind is fusing with the thoughts that will consume us
There's no going back after we commit these counter-

Repeat the home front attack.
Don't let their fears blind the drive for vengeance of their terrorist attacks!
Kill their children no remorse by the men above the drafted attacks.
Home front attack
It'll never give us the humanity back!
Full blow attack until the smoke rises to the abandoning sun
Full blow attack to the enemy behind the home front attack!

Your children dying
Your women are crying
The whole world is ailing due to these counter attacks!
Your mind is fusing with the thoughts that now consume us
There's no going back after we commit these counter-

Attack!

Stop and see this world blown attacks
On our soils they attack
Are we going to stand by and accept these terrorist attacks
We'll pin up the hopeless' focus on the enemies that attacked and send the promising bombs right back
Over to their home front don't stop these attacks and let the fears consume us
Fight back
Or you'll fail the man behind the mask.

Your children dying
Your women are crying
The whole world is engulfed in these fucking attacks!
Your heart is fusing with the aches that consume us
There's no going back we committed the counter-

Attacks!

Take a step back they want these attacks
You see these terrorist attacks
Will never end with these unholy acts.
Take the revenge back

Set your sights above the rest
Be above the attack
Let go of the vengeance before it takes your children's lives to hell and back!
